ROBERT BURNS.

Possessor of Qualities Which Were As Fashion of World.

Men cannot get away from Robert Burns, whose birthday was celebrated recently. Even those who care little for him, or know little of him as a poet, still feel drawn to the man for they have heard enough of him to make them realize that he possessed those qualities which always have won the regard and affection of the world.

As a poet Burns was in many particulars the first of the moderns. He took the democratic view of life and art which is now so widely prevalent. Common life, common people, common incidents were sufficient for him, and they were never less than his dignity.

To him life was the main thing, no matter by whom, or in what circumstances lived. More than this, he had the democratic way of looking at the world. Many men have dealt with themes similar to those handled by Burns, and yet they have left the impression that they were not quite earnest or sincere—that their democracy was a good deal of a pose. But in the case of Burns the thing was natural. He thought and felt in terms of democracy and he has been accepted on his own terms. Both as man and artist he holds the love and admiration of the world. It is well that it should be so, for Burns was a genuine man, and he did a great and helpful work.—Indianapolis News.

Yesterday Was a Busy Day On the Illinois Central—Roadmaster Downs Gears Through.

PERSONAL MENTION OF OFFICIALS

Mark Chandler, white, aged 20 years, residing near Cumberland river bridge, attempted to board freight No. 131 in charge of Conductor Timmer and Engineer Mercer, at Cumberland river bridge, about 1 o'clock last night, and fell under the wheels. Both of his feet were mangled and it is thought amputation will be necessary. The injured man was taken to Eldersville for treatment.

Mr. Harry Meyers, the jeweler, leaves today for the regular quarterly inspection of watches for the Illinois Central. Friday he will go over the St. Louis division.

The double track of the Illinois Central between Fulton and Cairo will be completed some time next month. The work is being pushed as rapidly as possible. However, hands and teams are very scarce, which naturally retards the more rapid progress that would otherwise be made.

It is rumored that the Illinois Central will come into possession of the Minneapolis and St. Louis road on July 15.

Mr. J. F. Brown, of Joplin, Mo., of the C. & E. I. was in the city yesterday and returned this morning on the Power.

Roadmaster of the Mississippi division of the C. & E. I. A. Dwyer, passed through the city yesterday enroute to Louisville. This is his last trip through this part of the territory since his transfer south.

Road Master P. Galvin, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, was in the city yesterday. He returned to Louisville last night.

Supt. H. P. Wallace, of the Louisville division, was in the city yesterday. He left on the Evansville excursion train to Evansville and from there to Louisville.

There was a small wreck at Trimble, Tenn., Saturday night, but no one was injured and little damage done to the train and engines. South bound freight No. 131 in charge of Conductor Russell and Engineer H. L. Linworth and a north bound extra coming into this city with the engine in charge of Avery Young and no conductor met at the above mentioned place and two cars of wheat were turned over and badly damaged. The engines were damaged some but the accident did not amount to much. Train No. 1 was run over the 1, and N. railroad via Martin and arrived in this city a little later than the regular schedule time but otherwise than this one case no delays were occasioned by the accident.

Ticket Agent G. C. Sheppard, of the Illinois Central here is again on duty and his vaccinated arm is much better. Mr. D. R. Tomer, who has been acting ticket agent in Mr. Sheppard's absence is still on duty however and will not leave until Mr. Sheppard regains the use of his arm.

Master Car Butler Sessions returned from Chicago this morning.

The following committee has been appointed to arrange for the annual picnic of the local employees of the Illinois Central: Commisnarian George Bonbrant, planning mill department A. T. Dostin, boiler shop; Edward Wheeler, tin shop; James Martin, paint shop; William Thobald, one freight department; Richard Robinson, another freight department; James Cleary, blacksmith department; and M. M. Hewitt, of the master mechanic's office.

The committee will hold a meeting this evening after working hours to begin the plan of arrangements. Last year the picnic was a success in every way and the railroad employees intend to make this still better. The time will be arranged and also the place for holding the picnic. The Sun has been tipped that the place will be Kuttawa, where the picnic was held last year, as it is about as good as any place near this city. There will be no outsiders allowed to attend as was allowed last year and only the employees of the Illinois Central will be permitted to go. Last year there were as many outsiders as railroad men and this will not be allowed again. The picnic will be given to the railroad employees and no one else will not be allowed to go on the excursion train. A brass band and string band will be taken along and the outing will be the biggest ever held in this part of the country.

It is contemplated to construct a railroad similar to the Lungfrau line in the south of Mont Blanc. The project is the idea of the Mont Blanc Observatory and M. Lecomte professor of mineralogy at the Lyons university in conjunction with M. Fabre, a French engineer, have been engaged for some time past in surveying the sides of the mountain to ascertain a suitable route and the atmospheric conditions. The result of these investigations is the projection of a line probably starting from the village of Thonclon, on the Savoy side, to the summit to have a total length of eleven miles.
